

ROTARACTORS SERVING THEIR COMMUNITIES

By Ugonna Ezeanya, District
Rotaract Representative

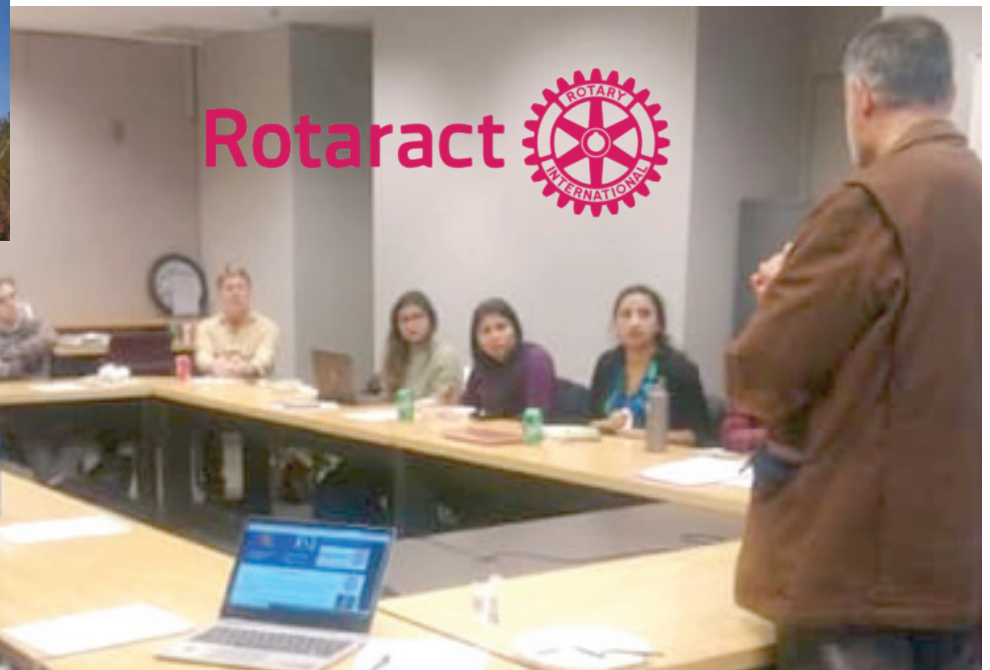

[Above] The Rotaract Club of Howard County spread some holiday cheer at their Deck the Halls Event where they decorated Grassroots Crisis Intervention Center with donated items. To learn more about the center and donate visit <https://www.grassrootscrisis.org/>

[Above] During their monthly meeting, the members of the Rotaract Club of American University made blankets that were eventually distributed to children in the Baltimore area. They also collected meal swipes from students and distributed meals to those in need.

[Below] The Rotaract club of Annapolis spent a Saturday afternoon cleaning up General's Highway in Maryland.

[Above] The John's Hopkins Rotaract Club hosted a Grant Writing and Leadership workshop that was led by PDG Jayaram Kumar and Monique Toussaint, District Rotaract Chair.
